

54th Chief Justice of Madras High Court

Prelims - Current Events of National and International Importance | Indian Polity & Governance.

Why in News?

Recently, Justice Manindra Mohan Shrivastava took oath as the 54th Chief Justice of the Madras High Court in a ceremony held at Raj Bhavan, Chennai.

- Appointed by - President of India.
- Oath of office - Administered by State Governor.
- Powers derived from - Article 217.
- Qualification -
  - Citizen of India,
  - Held a judicial office in the territory of India for ten years; or
  - An advocate of a high court (or high courts in succession) for ten years.
- Tenure - Constitution has not fixed the tenure.
  - He holds office until he attains the age of 62 years.
- Any questions regarding his age are to be decided by the president.
- Resignation - He can resign from his office by writing to the president.
- Salaries and allowance - The salaries, allowances, privileges, leave, and pension of the judges of a high court are determined from time to time by the Parliament.
- Salaries are drawn from the consolidated fund of the state while pensions are from the Consolidated fund of India.
- Removal - He can be removed from his office by the President on the recommendation of the same session of the Parliament.
- Grounds of removal are proven misbehavior or incapacity.
- He can be removed on the same manner and grounds as a judge of the Supreme Court.

High Courts

- The high court represents the state's judicial administration.
- Articles 214 to 231 in Part VI of the Constitution deal with the organization, independence, jurisdiction, powers, procedures and so on of the high courts.
- There are 25 high courts in the country, 3 of which have jurisdiction in more than one state.
- The number of judges, which consists of the chief justice and other judges, varies from state to state and is determined by the president.
- Functions
  - Original jurisdiction - In certain cases, they can hear a case directly, such as those related to fundamental rights or matters transferred from lower courts.
  - Appellate jurisdiction - High Court judges hear appeals against decisions made by subordinate courts (like district and sessions courts) in both civil and criminal matters.
  - Writs jurisdiction - High Courts can issue various writs (like Habeas Corpus, Mandamus, Prohibition, Quo-warranto, and Certiorari) to protect fundamental rights and ensure justice.
  - Supervisory jurisdiction - High Courts have the power to supervise and control all courts and tribunals within their jurisdiction (except those dealing with the armed forces).
  - Court of record - Its proceedings, judgments, and acts are officially recorded and considered permanent legal documents.
  - Administrative powers - High Courts also handle administrative tasks like appointing staff, determining salaries, and making rules for subordinate courts.
  - Power of judicial review - High Courts can review laws and ordinances to ensure they are consistent with the Constitution and declare them unconstitutional if they are not.

Reference

The Hindu | 54th Chief Justice of Madras High Court