Why in News?

Recently, Celebrating four years of launch of the Account Aggregator Ecosystem, India's Digital Public Infrastructure (DPI).

- Account Aggregator (AA) ecosystem - It is a part of India's digital public infrastructure, designed to give individuals and businesses secure and consent-based access to their financial data.
- The Reserve Bank of India issued the Master Directions for the Account Aggregator (AA) ecosystem.
- Account Aggregator (AA) framework - It was officially launched on September 2, 2021, establishing a secure, consent-based system for financial data sharing.
- It allows users to aggregate their financial information (like bank accounts, investments, loans, etc.) from multiple sources and share it with service providers for services like loan applications or financial planning.
- Account Aggregator (AA) - It is a type of Non-Banking Financial Company (NBFC) regulated by RBI .
- They act as intermediaries, ensuring data privacy and user control through encrypted, permission-driven data sharing.
- Function - It helps an individual securely and digitally access and share information from one financial institution they have an account with to any other regulated financial institution in the AA network.
- DPI - AA was recognised as a foundational Digital Public Infrastructure (DPI) serving as the data exchange layer, complementing the identity (Aadhaar) and payments (UPI) layers.

- AA Network - As on date, 112 Financial Institutions have gone live both as Financial Information Providers (FIP) and Financial Information Users (FIU), while 56 have gone live solely as FIP and 410 as FIU.
- Financial Information Provider (FIP) - These are institutions entrusted with the role of safeguarding customer's data.
 - Example - Banks, NBFCs (Non-Banking Financial Companies), Mutual Fund Depositories, Insurance Repositories, Pension Fund Repositories etc.
- FIU - It is an entity registered with and regulated by any financial sector regulator.
- It consumes the data from an FIP to provide various services to the end consumer.
- Significance - The AA ecosystem is poised to unlock new frontiers in formal credit access, especially for MSMEs and personal lending.
