Cente-State Relations

Considering that Education has been made a concurrent subject after the 42nd Amendment, should centre be allowed to unilaterally impose a national admission policy to professional courses on states? Examine in the light of centre-state relations and cooperative federalism. (200 words)

\n