Daily Mains Practice Questions 08-06-2026

GS Paper II- Governance

1. "While ensuring the purity of electoral rolls is vital for a robust democracy, large-scale voter purification exercises risk shifting the burden of proof onto vulnerable citizens." In light of the judgment in ADR v. ECI (2026), critically evaluate the constitutional authority of the Election Commission of India to conduct Special Intensive Revisions (SIR) and its socio-political implications. (15 Marks, 250 Words)

IAS PARLIAMENT The Indian Express

GS Paper III- Economic Development & Environment

2. "The Kalpasar Project exemplifies an ambitious engineering solution to coastal water scarcity, yet it exposes the fault lines of ecological justice and livelihood displacement." In light of recent Dutch collaboration, evaluate the techno-economic viability of this project while critically analyzing its socio-ecological and ethical implications for Gujarat's coastal communities. (15 Marks, 250 Words)

IAS PARLIAMENT The Indian Express