

Fugitive Economic Offenders Bill, 2018

Why in news?

 $n\n$

The Union Cabinet has recently approved the proposal of the Ministry of Finance to introduce the Fugitive Economic Offenders Bill, 2018.

 $n\n$

What is the need for this legislation?

 $n\n$

\n

• There have been several instances of economic offenders fleeing the jurisdiction of Indian courts.

\n

• E.g. Vijay Mallya fled the country to avoid being arrested for economic fraud, recent Nirav Modi-PNB fraud.

۱n

• The absence of such offenders from Indian courts has several adverse consequences such as -

\n

 $n\n$

\n

i. hampering investigation in criminal cases

\n

ii. wasting time of courts of law

\n

iii. undermining the rule of law in India

\n

iv. non-repayment of bank loans

n

v. worsening financial health of the banking sector

\n

 $n\n$

\n

• The existing civil and criminal provisions in law are not entirely adequate to deal with the severity of the problem.

\n

• In this context, Budget 2017-18 hinted at the introduction of legislation to confiscate the assets of such absconders.

\n

- The Bill comes as an effective, expeditious and constitutionally permissible deterrent to fugitive (escaping) economic offenders.
- \bullet This would also help banks and other financial institutions to achieve higher recovery from financial defaults. \n

 $n\n$

What are the key provisions?

 $n\n$

\n

• Declaration - The Bill makes provisions for a Court, 'Special Court' under the Prevention of Money-laundering Act, 2002.

\n

- \bullet A Director, appointed by the central government, will have to file an application to a Special Court. $\mbox{\sc h}$
- This is to declare a person as a Fugitive Economic Offender.
- Fugitive Economic Offender is a person against whom an arrest warrant has been issued in respect of a scheduled offence.

 And also who has left India to avoid criminal prosecution, or being abroad and refuses to return to India to face criminal prosecution.

• A scheduled offence refers to a list of economic offences contained in the Schedule to this Bill.

\n

 $n\n$

\n

• Features - Confiscation of the property of the fugitive economic offender resulting from the proceeds of crime.

\n\n

۱'n

• Confiscation of other property belonging to such offender in India and abroad, including benami property.

\n

 \bullet The Act disqualifies those declared as offenders from either filing or defending a civil claim in court. $\mbox{\sc h}$

 $n$

\n

- It is ensured that Courts are not over-burdened with such cases.
- \bullet Thus, only those cases in which total value involved is 100 crore rupees or more are within the purview of this Bill. $$
- Mechanisms A special forum would be created for expeditious confiscation of the proceeds of crime, in India or abroad.

 $n\n$

\n

• The Special court will appoint an 'administrator' to oversee the confiscated property.

\n

• The Administrator will manage and dispose of the confiscated property under the Act.

\n

• Remedies - The alleged Fugitive Economic Offender may return to India and submit to the appropriate jurisdictional Court.

۱'n

- \bullet In this case, the proceedings under the proposed Act would cease by law. $\ensuremath{\backslash} n$
- This is, provided that the offender returns in the course of the proceeding prior to the declaration.

\n

• Besides, the Court will issue a notice to the person named a 'fugitive economic offender'.

\n

• Within 6 weeks from the date of notice, the person will have to present him/herself, failing which he/she will be declared a 'fugitive economic offender'.

\n

 And their properties as listed in the Director's application will be confiscated.

۱n

 There is a 180-day window during which the property will remain attached, with a provision for appeal against confiscation order. - Constitutional safeguards - The necessary constitutional safeguards provided for in the Bill include: $\label{eq:constitutional} \ \ \, \text{safeguards}$

 $n\n$

\n

- i. providing hearing to the person through counsel $\ ^{n}$
- ii. allowing him/her time to file a reply \n
- iii. serving notice of summons, whether in India or abroad \n
- iv. appealing to the High Court \n

 $n\n$

\n

- \bullet Principle The Bill adopts the principle of non-conviction-based asset confiscation for corruption-related cases. \n
- Notably, it is enabled under the United Nations Convention against Corruption which India has ratified in 2011.
- The convention envisages domestic laws for confiscation of property without a criminal conviction.
- \bullet This applies to cases in which the offenders cannot be prosecuted for reasons of death, flight or absence. $\mbox{\sc h}$

 $n\n$

What are the concerns?

 $n\n$

۱n

- Existing provisions Legal provisions to confiscate the assets of offenders already exist; however inadequate.
- \bullet These include the provision in the Code of Criminal Procedure for attachment of the property of 'proclaimed offenders'. $$
- \bullet It also includes the Acts targeting smugglers, foreign exchange offenders and traffickers in narcotics. $\mbox{\ensuremath{\backslash}} n$

- Concerns Proceedings for forfeiture of property under these have been marked by shortcomings and procedural delays.
- \bullet Disposal of confiscated assets had not been easy, especially at a price sufficient to recoup losses or pay off all creditors. \n
- \bullet Also, how far will the threat of confiscation of property be a serious deterrent to the offender is highly uncertain. $\mbox{\sc h}$
- \bullet Challenges Under the present, Bill confiscation is not limited to the proceeds of crime. $\ensuremath{\backslash} n$
- It further extends to any asset owned by an offender, including benami property.
- \bullet Such clauses are liable for legal challenge, especially if there are third party interests and doubts about real ownership. $\mbox{\sc h}$
