Governance

While the economic reforms launched almost simultaneously with the decentralisation reforms have made tremendous headway, the local democracy is still struggling. Critically examine the reasons for the limited success of our grassroots democracy?

\n\n

Refer – The Hindu

\n