Governance

Recent incidents held in India’s elite independent institutions suggest that they are facing a credibility crisis. Do you agree with the view that such aberrations are linked to individual personalities, rather than hallmarks of institutional malaise?

\n\n

Refer – Live mint

\n\n

Enrich the answer from other sources, if the question demands.

\n