Internal security

Radicalisation of youth is perceived to be a great threat to India's security. How can such radicalisation be curbed without violating fundamental rights? What measures has India taken in this regard? (200 words)

\n