Internal Security

The Indian Army, known for its professionalism and highest integrity, is at risk of losing its identity and being misused to score political advances. Discuss the above statement with respect to diversion of armed forces to do civilian work.

\n\n

Refer – The Indian Express

\n