International Relations

Although India has traditionally sought to maintain a delicate balance between superpowers, in recent years this position appears to have shifted in favour of finding new allies. Discuss the opportunities and risks associated with such change in alignment? (200 words)

\n\n

Refer – The Hindu

\n\n

Enrich the answer from other sources, if the question demands.

\n