Judiciary

Delay and intimidating questions during trial in a hostile environment were the major reasons for fewer convictions in sexual abuse cases. Discuss how such secondary victimisations can be curtailed to establish women and child friendly courts.

\n\n

Refer – The Hindu

\n\n

\n