

Kapu agitations in Andrapradesh

Why in news?

 $n\n$

The farming community of Kapus in Andhra Pradesh started agitations for theirinclusion in notified Backward Classes.

 $n\n$

What are the demands of the Kapus?

 $n\n$

\n

• They constitute about 20% of the population, demanding its inclusion in notified Backward Classes.

\n

• The demand for quota for the Kapus has been there for more than two decades.

\n

• This will help them to get reservation in government jobs and educational institutions.

\n

 $n\n$

What are the reasons for the agitations?

 $n\n$

۱n

• Present government promised quotas for the Kapus, three years on there has been no announcement on the quota.

\n

- \bullet An agitation in 2016 stirred violence across the states, to address the issue came up with Manjunatha commission. $$
- It looked into the demands for quota by the Kapus and other communities. $\ensuremath{\backslash n}$
- \bullet There is no word yet from the Commission though it has been touring the State and taking representations. $\mbox{\sc h}$

 \bullet Recent protests, it was inspired from the Gujjars and the Patels agitation. $\ensuremath{\backslash n}$

 $n$

How political parties gains from Kapu demands?

 $n\n$

\n

- \bullet The issue has been used effectively by ambitious Kapu leaders and political parties to garner votes from this numerically strong community. \n
- \bullet Few parties make a political impact, riding on the sentiment that none from the community could rise to the level of Chief Minister. \n
- \bullet They raise the caste divide among the people for their secure vote bank. $\mbox{\ensuremath{\backslash}} n$

 $n\n$

 $n\n$

Source: The Hindu

\n

