Why in news?

The Supreme Court has delivered several landmark judgments in 2023.

S.No	Name of the Case	Judgement
1	Vivek Narayan Sharma v. Union of India	Upheld the decision taken by the Union Government to demonetise currency notes of Rs. 500 and Rs.1000 denominations and held that it satisfies the test of proportionality.
2	Joseph Shine v Union of India	Armed forces can take action against their officers for adulterous acts . Joseph Shine v Union of India , 2018 that decriminalised adultery does not prevent court martial proceedings initiated against members of the armed forces for adulterous conduct.
3	Anoop Baranwal v. Union of India	The Chief Election Commissioner (CEC) and Election Commissioners (ECs) will be appointed by the President on the advice of a committee comprising the Prime Minister, the Chief Justice of India (CJI) and the Leader of Opposition (LoP) in the Lok Sabha or the leader of the single largest party in opposition.
4	Subhash Desai versus Principal Secretary, Governor of Maharashtra and Ors	Opened the doors for disqualification proceedings against Maharashtra Chief Minister Eknath Shinde for defection from the Shiv Sena party, and held that the then-Governor Bhagat Singh Koshiyari “erred” in calling for a trust vote which triggered the fall of the Uddhav Thackeray-led government in mid-2022.
5	Animal Welfare Board v. Union Of India	Upheld the Prevention of Cruelty to Animals (Tamil Nadu Amendment) Act of 2017 and Prevention of Cruelty to Animals (Conduct of Jallikattu) Rules of 2017, saying that the traditional bull-taming sport ‘ Jallikattu ’ has been going on in Tamil Nadu for the last century.
6	Revanasiddappa v. Mallikarjun	A child born of a void or voidable marriage can inherit the parent’s share in a joint Hindu family property governed by the Mitakshara law. However, such a child would not be entitled to rights in or to the property of any other person in the family.

7	X v. Union of India	Declined a married woman's plea to medically terminate her 26-week pregnancy , and it opposed to order doctors to stop the heartbeat of the foetus when medical reports say she will give birth to a viable baby.
