Law Commission Report

\n\n

\n

- Recently, law commission has submitted its 267th report following SC's request to examine ways to arm the Election Commission to crack down on hate speech in 2014.

\n

- In the report, Law Commission has defined Hate Speech as " It is any word written or spoken, signs, visible representations within the hearing or sight of a person with the intention to cause fear or alarm, or incitement to violence".

\n

- It also proposed a new law - The Criminal Law (Amendment) Bill, 2017, to make speech inciting hatred and speech that causes fear, alarm or provocation of violence, a criminal offence under IPC.

\n

- Law commission is an executive (non-statutory) body created by the government from time to time.

\n

- The Commission was originally constituted in 1955 and is re-constituted every three years. Accordingly, 21st law commission was constituted in 2015 headed by Justice Balbir Singh for the period of 2015 to 2018.

\n

- Law Commission is requested to work upon specific issues and submit its views assigned by the Law ministry and the Supreme Court on various occasions.
