Why in news?

Parliament recently passed Waqf (Amendment) Bill, 2025.

- Waqf - A Waqf is a permanent endowment made by a Muslim for charitable/religious causes - like building mosques, schools, or hospitals.
- Once declared, the waqf property becomes inalienable - it can't be sold, gifted, inherited or mortgaged.
- Ownership is considered to be with God and the property is managed by Waqf Boards.

Waqf Board is constituted under the Waqf Act, 1995 (amended in 2013) by state governments to register, maintain and oversee Waqf properties in the state.

- Waqf (Amendment) Bill, 2025 - It aims to update the Waqf Act, 1995 to fix issues in the management of Waqf properties.
- The proposed changes focus on
 - Overcoming the shortcomings of the previous act and enhancing the efficiency of Waqf boards
 - Updating the definitions of waqf
 - Improving the registration process
 - Increasing the role of technology in managing Waqf records.
- Name of the Act - Unified Waqf Management, Empowerment, Efficiency, and Development Act, 2025.
- Key Provisions

Formation of Waqf	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Removes waqf by user and allows formation only through declaration or endowment. • Donors must be practicing Muslims for at least 5 years and must own the property. • Waqf-alal-aulad cannot deny inheritance rights to female heirs. Waqf-alal-aulad is a specific type of Waqf where income from the donated property is dedicated primarily for the benefit of the donor's family or descendants, recognized under Muslim law.
