

Despite the various complex situation, India needs to engage with Myanmar in order to establish a strong neighbourhood. Analyse.

Myanmar was under military rule since 1962 to 2016 and again after election of 2020. Military took Myanmar due to failure of military backed party and fees to loose the dominance.

Complex Situation with India:

* Trade and Investment

- Kaladan project initiated by India to link Kolkata to Assam Mizoram through Myanmar.
- Sittoung port development: the investment is done by India, to develop Sittoung port.

* Counter-Terrorism Operations

- India seeks help from Myanmar Army to counter insurgencies in North-Eastern Region.
- Myanmar also provide intelligence to Indian Army against local terrorist groups.

* Defence Relations:

- India provide Military support & training to Myanmar Army.

- India provide weapons and gear to Myanmar Army
- India also provided its naval submarine to Myanmar on lease

* Need to establish strong relation
2 end military rule

- India can block all contact and related to defence and weapons.
- Can attack on Myanmar based terrorist groups in order to show capability of India's Military
- Can force Myanmar Military to step down and allow political parties to rule the country, by force of power through sea, land and Air.
- Can form alliance to force with Myanmar USA, Japan and other like minded nation to promote and secure democracy

* Benefit:-

- Provide a major role to India in Asia
- Increase India's role to counter China
- will show power and to enemy nation and gain trust of people

Conclusion:

• Training force of neighbourhood is more important in order to gain peace supremacy and dominance in the region and to counter the negative or bad forces it.