

Q Is it necessary for the applicant to state the reasons for the Govt. for the Right to Information query?

Soln
Right to Information is the right provided by the Govt. in order to show the transparency and ϕ make the Govt. accountable and accountable.

This provision of the right way provided by the Right to Information Act 2005.

Ans. Necessary for applicant to state Reason?

Advantage!

→ The Govt. will come to know the no. of applicants filled for the particular sector.

→ The lack of disclosure of ~~the~~ info from the Govt. which need to increase. as per Sec 4, of RTI Act.

• Govt need to disclose the info so motto to avoid no. of application

• to increase transparency.

→ Govt's will have proper ~~check~~ checks and balances

→ Govt of will face proper checks and balances of its every action from citizens

Disadvantage;

→ The people or applicant will have a possible threat of life

→ Govt. may deny or make delay the info. to present

→ May ~~say~~ oppose the applicant to gain avoid the data

→ May use ~~some~~ some malpractice or corruption practice to withdraw the RTI

↳ this leads to reduce the checks and balances

★ Way Forward:-

The details of the applicant ~~can be~~ shall not be taken and in reason of RTI
should be mention

↳ this help to avoid threat and the reason for RTI shall maintain in order to avoid delay.

↳ help to maintain transparency &

State govt. accountable