

14/5/22

IR

India's participation in SCO summit is a clear signal of pursuing multi-alignment with its partners worldwide. Explain.

SCO is permanent and intergovernmental organization aiming political, economic, military engagement in maintaining peace and stability in the region.

Participation in SCO summit gives a clear signal of pursuing multi-alignment as follows

- Participation in Russian Vostok exercise, pitch black increase military engagement
- connectivity with Iran through Chabahar port and other Sankand initiative
- Raising the issues related to cross border terrorism, money laundering, human bombing with china and Pakistan help in internal security.
- climate goals, energy, tax policies diversified the strategic interest of India.
- Balancing relations with SCO against IPEF, 1202, AUKUS.