

A substantial part of subsidised agricultural loans has been diverted for non-farming activity like buying tractors for ploughing but these tractors are used by construction company.

Assessing the situation / lacuna, RBI issued guidelines for disbursement of loans by public and private sector bank to authentic beneficiaries. Further, using technology like Big Data Analytics and Core Banking Solution may ensure to great extent for the objective of agricultural credit policy.